SUPPORTING PASSION PLAYS & BIBLICAL DRAMAS

BE INSPIRED BY A DAY OF TALKS,
SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS.

Testimonials

"For this to work, the process of actually creating a community is as important as actually getting the play together because if people are not a community, they don't feel part of something and it won't work" (2014)

"The conference was a great way to meet others. I learnt so much and made some great friends." (2014)

"There is a spiritual hunger out there and if we put these events on and it impacts the people that volunteer, it will also impact the community who watch it" (2015)

"Thank you! What a great weekend. The performance was moving and it was so inspiring to hear what is happening with other Passion Plays" (2015)

Poole Passion Play is co-hosting the conference. Poole Community Passion Play (PCPP), is Dorset's largest theatrical presentation of the Passion of Christ. They are a hugely diverse inter-generational group made up of both amateur and professional artists who come together to dramatically re-enact the last days of Jesus Christ. Throughout the year, they work together on additional projects, including radio plays and smaller re-enactments.
